

The British Institute of Musculoskeletal Medicine
Spring Symposium 21/22 April 2012

Keele University, Staffordshire

BIMM tutors workshop

Sunday 22nd April

09.00a.m After review of the new 'Competencies in MSM' document produced by the working party for Credentialing (this will be sent to you in advance) we will perform a consensus exercise around the following:
Considerations to be given to what is basic GP level

Intermediate (GPSI)

Advanced (specialist)

(If time -Should we be teaching Interpretation of imaging – in what depth?)

10.00a.m Introduction and review of last year's workshop and conclusions

John Tanner

10.30a.m Feedback from those in attendance

Cervical spine Simon Harley

Shoulder Simon Petrides

Hand and wrist Steve Parr-Burman

Lumbar spine James Inklebarger and Rod MacDonald

11.00am Coffee

Knee Adrian Dunbar

Hip and groin Mike Hopkins

Ankle and foot John Tanner

12.00 p.m New areas for consensus development on the most useful and teachable systematic examination in light of evidence for reliability, reproducibility and validity in regions below

Thoracic spine Jens Foell

Elbow Richard Smith

Pelvis (SIJ) Simon Petrides

1.00pm Lunch

Supported by

